

Proposed Stalking Protection (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to increase protection of victims of stalking by giving police the power to apply for stalking protection orders on behalf of victims. The consultation runs from 29 April 2019 to 21 July 2019. All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of increasing protections for victims of stalking by giving police the power to apply for Stalking Protection Orders on behalf of victims?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including any advantages and/or disadvantages of the proposed Bill.

I am fully supportive of this Bill.

Q2. Which of the following best expresses your view of limiting Stalking Protection Orders to a maximum duration of two years, with the possibility of renewal by the court?

Partially opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I feel that given the nature of some stalker who cannot or will not stop their behaviours two years is not long enough.

Q3. Which of the following best expresses your view of making the breach of a Stalking Protection Order a criminal offence, with a maximum sentence of up to 6 months imprisonment and/or a fine on summary conviction, and up to 5 years imprisonment and/or a fine for conviction on indictment?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reason for your response.

I am fully supportive of this because I would hope that this would be somewhat of a deterrent for someone who feels that they are above the law.

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view of allowing a Stalking Protection Order to be made against a child (i.e. under the age of 16 and above the age of criminal responsibility in Scotland)?

Partially supportive

Financial implications

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

	Significant increase in cost	Some increase in cost	Broadly cost-neutral	Some reduction in cost	Significant reduction in cost	Unsure
(a) Government and the public sector, including the police and courts		X
(b) Businesses
(c) Individuals

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I believe there would be some increase in costs within policing however this could potentially reduce costs within the judicial system by possibly reducing the need for lengthy protracted court hearings against the stalker.

Equalities

Q6. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, maternity and pregnancy, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Neutral (neither positive nor negative)

Q7. In what ways could any negative impact of the Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

further training for police officers in recognising and investigating complex stalking crimes. Stalkers can potentially misuse the police and this stalking protection order could be used against the wrong person. Stalkers are sometime very clever and make false allegations to the police about the victim or the victims family.

Sustainability

Q8. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably, i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response.

General

Q9. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

I am asking the members of the Scottish Government to approve this Bill .
